As she stood at the black cross tattooed on her wrist, Jeanette Popp told students Wednesday how death row inmates’ family members, said she was mentally ill and that killing him would be murder.”

She confronted her daughter Nancy’s name inscribed

Youngblood said wages are determined by which jobs are more or less valuable. TCU monitors the market and sets the “going rate” when wages are decided, Youngblood said.

“All organizations look at the market and set a wage that would attract people,” Youngblood said.

While Greek involvement has dropped in many universities, TCU saw a rise in students participating in fall Recruitment from the previous year, according to the office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs.

In 2009, 548 students participated in fall sorority Recruitment, more than a 4 percent increase from 2008. Fraternity Recruitment saw an increase of almost 2 percent.

The numbers come as many universities have seen a significant drop in Greek life.
